No Place for Religion.

An old negress entered an Episcopal church and during the services was continually heard to shout
"Amen, O Lord!" thereby disturbing the entire congregation. Finally a young man sitting behind her gently touched her on the shoulder and said:

"Madame, you must cease that noise. This is not the custom in our church."

She quieted for a moment and presently started up another howl, more severe than the one before.

The young man again cautioned her, but in vain. The third time he gruffly shook her and said:

"Woman, you must either quit that noise or leave."

She looked at him rather defiantly and retorted:

"Quit disturbin' me, man. I've gettin' religion."

"Well, this is certainly no place to get it," hastily the young man replied.—National Monthly.

Vegetables Now Luxuries in France.

Complaints are being heard on all sides in Paris that tomatoes, melons, cucumbers, squashes—nearly everything except potatoes—have become luxuries beyond the reach of the vast multitude of working people whose daily earnings do not exceed 80 cents or $1.
